

Notice of Privacy Practices

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

This notice is for those receiving health care items and/or services from any Five Star Quality Care subsidiary provider and/or supplier. Five Star Quality Care, Inc. and all its subsidiaries (including but not limited to nursing facilities, pharmacies, rehabilitation hospitals, outpatient rehabilitation clinics, personal care homes, ICF/MR facilities, assisted living communities, durable medical equipment suppliers, continuing care retirement communities, and home health agencies) operate as a single affiliated covered entity (ACE) for HIPAA purposes. As a result, sharing information among these subsidiaries constitutes use, but not disclosure, of the information. A full list of the subsidiary providers/suppliers that make up the Five Star Quality Care ACE can be found at the Company's website (<http://www.fivestarseniorliving.com>) or is available in hard copy upon request.

1. Privacy

Your privacy is a priority at Braintree Rehabilitation Hospital and New England Rehabilitation Hospital, parts of Five Star Quality Care.

We follow strict federal and state guidelines to maintain the confidentiality of your personal "protected health information." This includes any information about your past, present or future health care, or payment for care that could be used to identify you.

Our team of health care personnel and business associates may access only the minimum of protected health information needed to complete their responsibilities.

2. Our Responsibilities

Five Star Quality Care is required by law to:

- Maintain the privacy of your health information
- Provide this notice of our privacy practices and your privacy rights
- Abide by the terms of this notice

We reserve the right to change our privacy practices, in accordance with the law. Any such changes will be incorporated into the notices that are posted at all Five Star locations and that are also available to you upon request.

3. Use and Disclosure of Protected Health Information Without Your Authorization

We may use and disclose your protected health information without written authorization for:

- Treatment – to allow staff to share information internally or with other providers when necessary for your health care. Examples include:
 - Laboratory test results
 - Responses to medications or treatments
- Payment – to provide necessary information about services you receive so you, your insurance company, or other third party can pay us. Examples include:
 - Itemized bills
 - Requests for prior authorization

Effective June 15, 2011

- Health care operations – to use health information to improve the services we provide. Examples include:
 - Staff and student training
 - Business management
 - Performance improvement
 - Customer service
- Other related uses and disclosures
 - To remind you of appointments
 - To inform you of health benefits, services and treatment alternatives
 - To communicate with family or persons involved in your care (unless you object)
 - To use a directory and inform visitors, callers and clergy where you are and your general condition (unless you object)

In certain situations we are required or permitted by law to disclose your health information without your authorization:

- Emergency treatment situations
- Averting serious threat to public health or safety
- Disaster relief
- Protection of victims of abuse or neglect
- Public health activities, such as tracking diseases and medical devices
- Federal and state health oversight activities, such as accreditation or licensure surveys, and fraud and abuse investigations
- Judicial or administrative proceedings
- Requirements by law or for law enforcement
- Specialized government functions such as national security and intelligence
- Coroners, medical examiners and funeral directors
- Organ donation
- Workers' compensation for injuries at work
- Correctional institutions if you are an inmate
- Research following strict review to ensure protection of information

Other uses and disclosures not described in this section 3 may only be done with your written authorization. You have the right to revoke your authorization at any time.

4. Your Rights

As a person receiving health care services from Five Star Quality Care, you have the right to:

- Receive information about your health condition, diagnoses and treatments.
- Inspect and get copies (for a fee) of your health information.* Special rules may apply for access to certain restricted information such as psychotherapy notes. We will retain your medical record for 20 years after treatment ends in accordance with Massachusetts state law.
- Request a restriction on how or to whom we disclose your health information.* Please note that we are not required to agree to a restriction.
- Request an amendment to your health record. Please note that your request must include a reason.*
- Request an accounting of how your health information has been disclosed (excluding disclosures for treatment, payment, health care operations, or other disclosures not required by law to be including in an accounting).*
- Request that we communicate with you using a specific address, phone number, email or other means.*
- Receive a paper copy of this notice.
- Make a complaint about a violation of your privacy or rights.

* Please note that all requests must be in writing.
